Duna. DunaWhen I was a little lad, with folly on my lips,Fain was I for journeying all the seas in ships,But I'm weary of the sea wind, weary of the foam,And the little stars of Duna call me home. When I was a young man, before my beard was grey,All to seas and islands I gave my heart away. Now across the southern swell, every dawn I hearThe little streams of Duna running clear.
