There is a problem with people trying to understand their life, their interactions with those around them, how they think, how they can control their destiny, how they view the world, and even how they love. Quite simply, they ignore or don't know how to interact with a very important part of themselves and, possibly, the most important part. They do not listen to or use their heart. We are finding out the heart has its own independent brain and with it the entire world can be opened to us. The heart-Brain stores memories and initiates electro-magnetic messaging that is 5000 times as powerful as the other brain communications. This book will help you understand how to use it to expand your awareness of this reality, understand and control those around you, accomplish what seem to be miraculous feats, and even communicate with the creator God. The great King Solomon told us, "Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it." Scientists have discovered some of its secrets.

What If there's an easier way to generate and close more (and better) clients consistently month after month? When was the last time you heard a prospective client say something like... "I've been looking for someone just like you"... "I already know I want to work with you"... Or my favorite... "how do we start working together RIGHT NOW?" It's written for coaches, consultants, experts, freelancers, insurance agents, mortgage brokers, wealth managers, attorneys, and anyone who is in the 'client business' or professional services world. Adrift is a book, based on a true story, for those who have left home, sought home, or even found home and know what it's like to live between worlds. Deanne was born to Canadian parents and grew up living in Canada, Germany and then on ships sailing around the world. This story begins when she moved back to the sea shortly after her 13th birthday. As I stared out the window of the van, the buildings of every city loomed ominously, like giant watchdogs forcing us to keep going. The glass was cool as I leaned my head against the window and forced the tears to retreat. The world outside the window whirled by as I stared the dogs down. My memories hung loosely together like bulbs from a string of lights. I couldn't remember when or where they happened or my exact age. I lived moment by moment, a girl in front of an ever-changing landscape of people and places. There were reasons I did not belong to each of the countries I lived: you are not German, you have a
