Teaching Syllable Patterns: Shortcut to Fluency and ...

I teach the closed syllable after a student knows all of his or her individual letter sounds. I teach the open syllable only when the student is familiar with the digraphs sh, th, ch, ck, ph, and wh, and the long vowel sounds. They are then ready for the vowel-consonant-e syllable type.

The Big Five: Teaching Syllable Types | Orton Gillingham ...

Step 1: Build Syllables to introduce open and closed syllables: In this photo, you can see an open syllable (on the left) and a closed syllable (on the right.) These do not need to be words. They are syllables. Quo is not a word, but it is the first syllable in quotation quota. After building this, teach students that the o says it ' s name because it is not closed in by a consonant.
